

FAIRWOOD COMMUNITY CENTER

Bowie, MD

Progressive Contracting Company, Inc. completed construction for the this upscale residential neighborhood in Maryland. Construction work included grading, site improvements, site utilities, swimming pool construction, recreational amenities and building construction. The community center included the following components:

- neighborhood center with meeting rooms and offices
- pool equipment rooms
- pool bathrooms, showers and changing rooms
- new Olympic sized swimming pools with a beach entry
- spa pool and wading pool
- extensive landscaping and hardscapes
- ornamental shade structures
- tennis courts
- children's tot lot
- volley ball courts

Owner: General Growth Properties
Architect: Banta Campbell Architects

